"A NEW KIND OF DC"

If you've ever wanted the chance to start fresh, lead boldly, and be part of something that matters, this is it!

- Shape the culture from day 1
- Lead in a high-performance, robotics-enabled DC
- Build your career in Nampa, Idaho

TSC DC Leadership

From the Leadership Behind the Nampa Launch

This isn't just a new DC... It's a launchpad for serious leaders who want to build something from the ground up. The Nampa DC offers more than upgraded systems and robotics. It offers space to grow, lead, and create lasting impact.

Relocating means stepping into a hand-picked team, shaping culture from day one, and being part of something bigger than a job. You'll live in a fast-growing region surrounded by mountains, open skies, and a strong sense of community, with room to build your career and your life.

TSC Nampa, Idaho

Be Part of the Elite Launch Team

Leadership Roles

Only the best need apply: AGM, OM's, Supervisors, Prod Planners, - We're looking to build a world-class team!

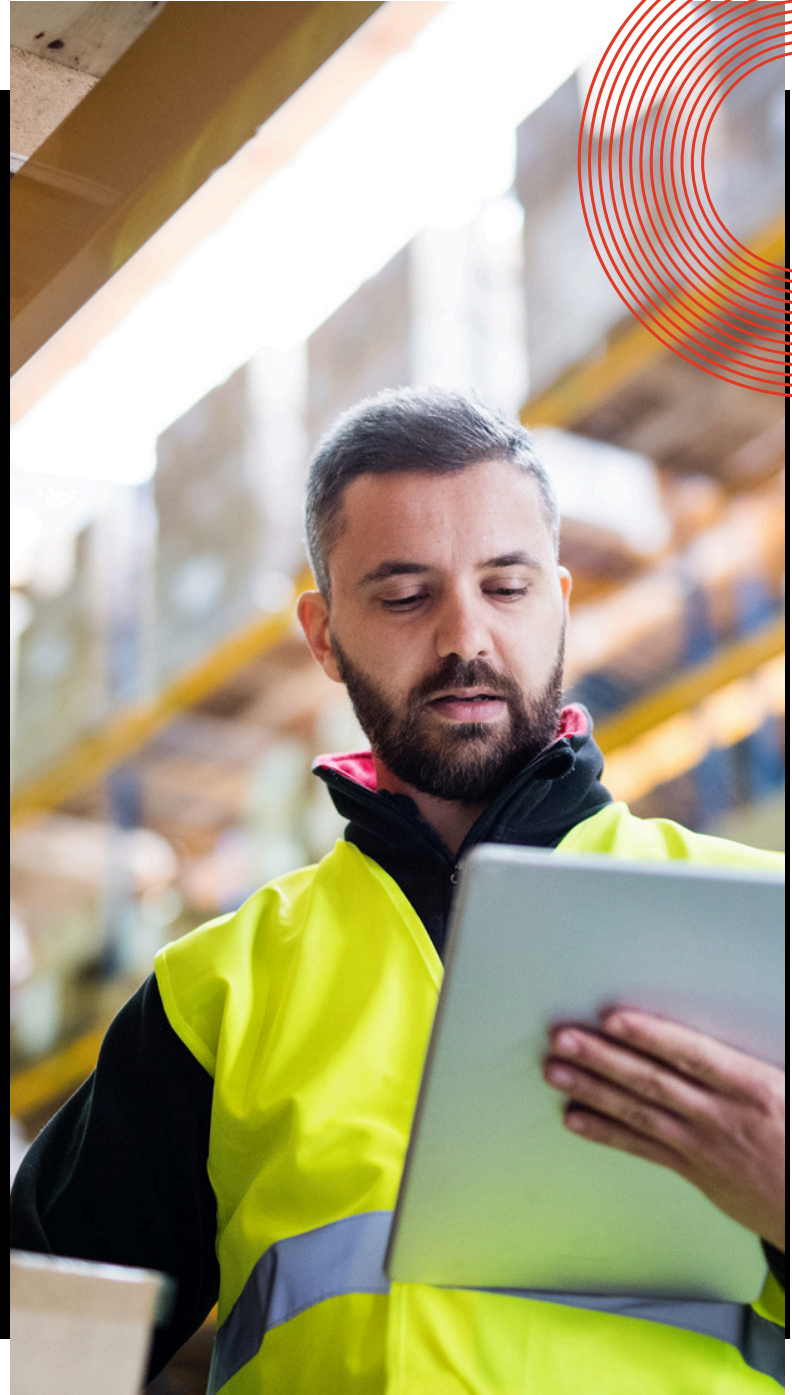

Responsibilities

Lead daily operations, drive high performance, build team culture, and ensure a successful DC launch.

Growth Opportunities

Take on greater responsibility, expand your leadership, and grow your career.

Shape the Culture From Day 1

You won't be inheriting someone else's playbook. You'll help write it. The decisions, standards, and values you bring to this team will influence how this DC operates for years to come.

Lead in a High-Performance DC

This is not a typical DC. With robotics, automation, and real-time data, we're building a clean, fast, and innovative operation, designed for leaders who can think strategically and decisively.

How to Join Us

1 Explore the Opportunity

We're building something extraordinary in Nampa and we're looking for high-performing, high-character leaders to help us do it. This is your chance to be part of an elite launch team from the ground up.

2

Attend a biweekly Virtual Info-Session to hear the latest updates, project vision, relocation expectations, leadership roles, and timelines. Before each session, we'll post a list of open positions so you can decide if the opportunity is right for you.

 Note: This is not a requirement to apply.

3

Apply, Interview & Align

View the open positions here. You may be asked to participate in an interview, depending on the position. Once selected, you'll be notified and included in biweekly alignment calls with other leaders who've committed to the Nampa startup. These calls will begin well ahead of go-live and are designed to build cohesion and ensure readiness.

“

*Opportunities like this don't come around often. We're building something special in Nampa... not just a facility, but a team, a culture, and a legacy. If you've ever wanted to be part of something special from day one, this is your chance. We're looking for leaders who care deeply about doing things right, growing together, and leaving their mark. I can't wait to see who steps forward. ~ Steve Legier, Nampa GM
